CONFERENCE PROGRAM FOR ST. JOHNSBURY

Has Been Arranged by the Rev. J. M Frost-First Conference in St. Johnsbury for a Score of Years.

St. Johnsbury, March 25.—The Rev. J. M. Frost, pastor of Grace Methodist church, has prepared the official programme for the Vermont conference, which convenes here the third week in April. It has been 20 years since the conference has come to St. Johnsbury, and the local church expects to entertain about 140 preachers and about 70 wives of preachers. As previously announced, Bishop Joseph F. Perry of Buffalo, N. Y., will preside. Bishop McCabe of Philadelphia, so widely known as "Chaplain" McCabe, would have presided at this conference had his life been spared. Following is the official pro
